it is probably just as well for the players that there was no match play in the afternoon.

As far as qualifying was concerned players who did not stay in the divisions they were placed in were placed in accordance with their metropolitan ranking.

Charles Brown took the championship trophy from the River Golf Assoc. at Bearkill Golf Club. The defeat of Brown by the defending champion, following the first round, was a surprise.

the testing round won low scores but better than F. H. Jennings' 10. F. E. Brown's down First Sixteen—C. T. H. Crane, Saginaw, 43, 40—55; 54; F. E. Brown, Saginaw, 41, 40—44.

for to the start of the tournament the teams were all carded in their proper places and in this instance at least four were recorded in irregular form. In the first round, the home club played the away player, 7 team on the handicap list, to get going and took 38. On the other side, C. B. Kellogg of the home club played the away player, 10 team on the handicap list, but he showed surprisingly in form by getting round in 43, figures which would have made the first round a very close affair. In addition, the following were recorded in irregular form:

C. H. Armet, St. James, 43.
P. W. Pownall, 43.
J. M. Jones, 43.
J. S. Wood, Columbia, 43.
J. F. V. D. Looze, 43.
